Dear Students and Parents,

WELCOME to the 8th year of DANCEARTS YOUTH COMPANY, and heartfelt congratulations to all the students who are eligible for the 2022-2023 DAYCO season.

In the fall of 2014, DanceArts Greenville successfully launched its DANCEARTS YOUTH COMPANY. DAYCo developed out of the original DanceArts Enrichment Programs entitled Ensemble and Staged started in 2010, which provided our Intermediate and Advanced students with specialized Saturday morning & early afternoon dance study. While continuing to offer pre-professional dance training in technique, choreography, and performance artistry, DAYCo added the Competition Track with opportunities to compete at YAGP (Youth American Grand Prix) and Grand Jeté (South Carolina Governors School for the Arts and Humanities) last season. This track is by invitation that is based on the artistic teams' review of the students' development. Competition Track will have three sessions per month in both the Fall and Spring semester. This level requires summer ballet training in a summer intensive and/or camps.

We have a new level this year that is called Festival. After watching the growth of our Competition Track dancers, our Festival curriculum will offer the same personal performance training. Festival dancers will start with two sessions per month for the Fall semester, and will include a demonstration on November 20th and announcement of what solo, duet or quartet dance that they will perform. In the Spring semester, Festival will have three sessions per month, during which they will work on their dances to present in the end of April. This level requires summer ballet training in a summer intensive or camps.

Our youngest company levels, Elites and Trainees, will start their fall semester with one session a month that will focus on Conditioning/Progressing Ballet Technique, Ballet class and Repertoire in Contemporary dance (Lyrical/Jazz focus). After the New Year, Elite and Trainees will come twice a month and will build on their dances for their showcase.

We plan to have a DAYCo summer camp August 1-4 and 8-11, when our full company will have eight days to take classes, receive photos for the season, get their dance kits and required items, and enjoy each others company while building camaraderie for the season. If you have any questions on summer training for your DAYCo dancer please reach out to us and we can assist you.

With best regards,

Anita Pacylowski & Hernan Justo, Directors of DanceArts Greenville & DAYCO

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

At DanceArts Greenville, we want a nurturing, supportive, and safe artistic learning environment. As student role models for the greater DanceArts community, we ask that all DAYCO students read and follow the following set of guidelines.

PUNCTUALITY & ATTENDANCE POLICY

Consistent attendance is vital in maintaining a student's mastery of dance technique. Dance is a physical activity that requires consistent weekly training to establish muscle strength and muscle memory. Classical ballet training is a highly specialized technique that requires excellent instruction by a knowledgeable teacher and committed attendance by the student in order to achieve the desired results. Please show respect to your teachers and fellow students by arriving on time for your classes and rehearsals.

Foreseen absences should be emailed in advance to Office@DanceArtsGreenville.com as early as possible, so that teachers and choreographers can plan accordingly. In the case of an emergency, illness, or unavoidable absence, we ask students or parents/guardians call or email DanceArts at 864-297-1635, as soon as possible.

ARRIVING EARLY AND PREPARING FOR CLASS:

Students will get the maximum benefit from ballet class if they arrive early (15 minutes before) and are mentally and physically prepared for class. These minutes before class should be used to stretch or think about the exercises you did in the last class.

REPORTING INJURY

DanceArts Greenville is committed to the safety and well being of all students. We expect students to take responsibility for their physical condition, report injuries, and not risk their health to participate in the program. Student should report to their teacher and the teacher will hand the student an Observation Form to be filled out while the student is observing class/rehearsal. The form will be available by the DAYCO board.

ELECTRONIC DEVICES

Cell phones and other telecommunications devices, such as iPads, iPad minis, iPods, laptops, pagers, gaming devices, etc. should be silenced and kept in bags and/or dressing rooms.

SOCIAL MEDIA POLICY and CONDUCT

As a DAYCo dancer, your posts and interaction on social media should promote a positive and healthy perspective. You represent DanceArts Greenville even when not in the studios walls and your conduct must demonstrate this appropriately. Posting any images or videos from DAYCO sessions should include a proper representation of DAYCo's mission and acknowledge the choreographic and music credits.

This prohibition includes harassment for any unlawful discriminatory reason, such as race, gender, national origin, disability, age or religion. This policy also prohibits actions that, while they may not be severe or serious as to constitute harassment in a legal sense, are nevertheless commonly understood to be abusive and disrespectful of others.

Accordingly, slurs, jokes, or remarks that are derogatory of a person or group's race, ethnic background, religion, gender, disability, sexual orientation, economic status, or age are considered inappropriate for the school's environment.
